The 2005 Dissenter is dedicated to Mary Thorne and Mel Oliver

Students voted for their favorite staff member and faculty member during portrait day on January 31, 2005. Mary Thorne, a staff worker in the cafeteria, was chosen as the favorite staff member and Mel Oliver, Assistant Professor of Economies, was chosen as the favorite faculty member. Congratulations to both!

Letter from the President of the College Ian D. C. Newbould

Dear Wesleyan students:

Another year is now complete. Many of you are graduating this year, and to the Class of 2005 I send you the most heartfelt congratulations and my best wishes for your future. Each student who graduates represents a personal success story. Reaching this milestone is an achievement to be proud of. For those among you who have two or three years until graduation, your time to graduate will come sooner than you think! This yearbook will rekindle memories of 2004-2005, and remind you that your time here at Wesleyan passes by quickly. Ecclesiastes tells us,

"there is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven... a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance."

Let this yearbook be a reminder to you of all our seasons' activities, which during the year have included all that Ecclesiastes refers to, and more!

Best wishes,

Ian D.C. Newbould, President Letter from the Dean of Students Peter G. Phaiah

College life provides an environment that contributes to your continual overall development. The Office of Student Life at NCWC provides many opportunities for you to develop socially, physically, intellectually, and spiritually to supplement your academic endeavor. Character development, civic responsibility, shared governance, diverse interaction, and leadership training are all part of the holistic development that you as a student can obtain through engaging in student activities outside the classroom. Programs and activities are planned, implemented, and evaluated to ensure that positive developmental opportunities are available for our students.

We understand that our diverse student population has a wide array of priorities and needs. It is only through open communications and cooperation that we can hope to effectively address these issues. The College relies on input and feedback from students and student organizations to enhance college/student life.

Therefore, I strongly recommend that you as a student at NCWC become more involved in student activities and the decision making process. Your participation, contribution, and leadership will help the Student Life staff offer you and your peers a more complete education.

Campus Life: Expect the Unexpected!

It STARTS with the Best and ENDS with the Best!!! Class of 05' The Living Legacy!!!

Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness that most frightens us. We ask ourselves, Who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, fabulous? Actually, who are you not to be? You are a child of God. Your playing small does not serve the world. There is nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you. We are all meant to shine, as children do. We were born to make manifest the glory of God that is within us. It is not just in some of us; it is in everyone. And as we let our own light shine, we consciously give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others.

First I would like to thank God, my savior, for blessing me with this opportunity. I leave my best wishes to all NCWC students. Continue to keep your head up before you know it you will soon travel on the road of success. Despite everything that happens at Wesleyan High School remember who you are and why you're there. Always have self-confidence and belief in yourself. You are the beginning, strive for the end. To all faculty and staff thanks for all you have done in the last 4 years, I am forever grateful. P.S.-Don't stay at Wesleyan longer than you need too!!!!!

I, Teranda Alston, leave my ability to study hard to Tora. To Gladys I leave my ability to multitask. I leave my ability to make the most of every moment to Suzsan.

l Pamela S. Ward, leave my persistence and determination to single mothers of the North Carolina Wesleyan. The sky is the limit so until you touch the sky, don't give up. To God be the Glory!

I Bobby Eason, leave my love of Will Ferrell to Kelvin Clark and Richard Tipps. Most of all, I leave my heart and all my love to Erin Bryant.

l Khira Evans, having power, love, and a sound mind impart the following into the people which have impacted my life forever: To Johnathan, I leave the ability to stand when all else fails (Eph 6:11); Latisha, I leave my role as a leader and creativity that will change nations for Jesus' sake; Temesha, I leave my boldness which will empower you to set the example that others will quickly follow; To Vanessa, I leave you this: thank you for continuing to walk upright in meekness. Your example has always challenged me to be more considerate of others; To Jennifer, I leave my passion for Christ and the lost; To Tibbs and Joey, I leave this: continue to "rejoice in the LORD , you who are righteous, and praise his holy name." (Ps 97:12); to the entire campus, I leave the love of Christ, for it is by His grace that we are saved and transformed and not by anything else. Always remember this: He's coming quickly so set your houses in order and work hard in the field for our redemption draw! s nigh.

I, Nicolle R. Womack, leave to my friends in "the circle of trust", my dedication to excellence in education, my determination for success, my strong personality and of course my love. Remember "A good woman does not live in fear of the future because of her past. Instead, she understands that her life experiences are merely lessons, meant to bring her closer to self knowledge and unconditional self love."

Leave behind the most important, "Dee Bumpers & Curls" to all of my North Carolina Wesleyan College clients. To all we thought that they were going to keep me with them, sorry I'm leaving and I'm not coming back. To those who I have gren and received love to, take good care and don't let no one stop you in your tracks. I also leave my big pot of Jamaican reipes to all of my taste testers and stomach fillers. To all those who are "so called" friends for the moments, keep that cose because it may not last forever. I leave my quotes and favorite comments to just about all who knows them. And last bt not least, for those who thinks very less of me, who cares because I'll probably never see you in my lifetime again. Pace out cub scouts!

From the one and only,

Donnarie A. Clarke A.K.A Dee

'To all at NCWC, I leave gratitude for the Lord, Franklin County, loud Chevrolet trucks, cowboy tats and boots, Fender guitars, and sweet typing music. Smirk often, grin plenty, and cry little. Always appreciate what you have, love your family, work hard, say "boogedy boogedy boogedy" it green lights, and keep drumming on the steering wheel." -- Elaine Wrenn

. Monica Shorter, Leave my love of reading to all English majors. I leave my outgoing personality to the incoming freshmen so they can make new friends. I want to express my gratitude to all my English professors, especially Dr. Bowers and Dr. Anderson. Your instruction and wisdom are greatly appreciated. Sharon, there aren't enough words to say "Thank You". I wouldn't have survived NCWC without you. I'll never forget all the things we've shared- classes, lunches, constant support, secrets, laughs, but most of all, your love and friendship. Yang, I will miss you. Finally, to Wayne, Cassidi and Jarred - Thank you for being my motivation and my inspiration. Thanks for always being there for me and for being so understanding. I Love you.

To the V-ball and B-ball teams I leave hope and strength. To April Wilson I leave the reminder that to be the best it takes knowing what the best is. Never give up. --Kandar Brewer

I. Todd Mueller, leave my nights and weekends to my beautiful wife Lisa. Now I'm finally done! No more school or homework.

I. Basil Smith, leave my crunkness, hood attitude, and sense of humor to Martha Rascoe. To all Wesleyan students, I leave my willingness to achieve through hardship that you may face. I leave my late night drinks, motivational speeches while under the influence and work ethics to Aaron Bush.

I, Kristen Nicole Sherrod, leave for my last will and testament: yellow shirts and church choirs, morning cell talks with EW screaming , big pocketbooks – hitting people for talking ugly, MP (California Girl) – "Castalia", YS Jesus talks and "byiii", ML Hing Ta, LR shooters and tater salad, AF hunting & longbed chevrolets, QMS psychology fascination, FG never talking in class, HD lunch at the grill, and my front row seat in class & nerdy studying habits to all remaining NCWC students.

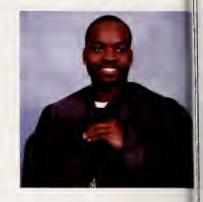

I, Jahmel A. Dimson, leave the best business in any line of business is to have some business of your own. But if you have no business then make it your business to leave other people's business alone.

compete for the pleasure of my Heavenly Father, the honor of Christ and the reputation of the Holy Spirit.

My attitude on and off the field is above reproach my conduct beyond criticism. Whether I am preparing, practicing or playing; I submit to God's authority and those He has put over me. I respect my coaches, officials, teammates and competitors out of respect for the Lord.

My body is the temple of Jesus Christ. I protect it from within and without. Nothing enters my body that does not honor the Living God. My sweat is an offering to my Master. My soreness is a sacrifice to my Savior.

I give my all - all of the time. I do not give up. I do not give in. I do not give out. I am the Lord's warrior a competitor by conviction and a disciple of determination. I am confident beyond reason because my confidence lies in Christ. The results of my efforts must result in His glory.

LET THE COMPETITION BEGIN. LET THE GLORY BE GOD'S.

Football a New Beginning at NCWC

Jack Ginn- Head Coach

"The highlight of the NCWC team was having a winning season, a feat which had not been accomplished in 23 years by a first-year Division III program, since 1981. Next year we are looking forward to having a program that's contending for a conference championship without experiencing the novelty of being a 1st-year team."

None of our players are here on athletic scholarships; they are here because they are serious about their education and they have a true love and passion for the game, which is why they are willing to work so hard."

Gerald Jones-Assistant Coach (Defense) "I am very proud of our players; I feel they did a good job of being ambassadors for our new football program. We've made a good impression on campus and it has been a positive experience for the college. I am looking forward to returning next season with players who have gained game experience; hopefully, we can keep getting better."

Young and Promising

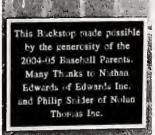

The Battling Bishops women's basketball team got off to a great start. After the first half of USA South Conference play the Bishops were in second place. The team built a win streak and were playing for first place in the conference on the last day of January. Injuries kicked in and the team lost momentum and confidence.

However, the Bishops are young. They will miss Senior Kendra Brewer inside, but returning the rest of the team may nake way to a bright future. Freshman guard Trenae Turner, Honorable Mention All-Conference, and Freshman forward Cheyenne Hall's consistent play throughout the season earned them starting positions for the Bishops. Key wins for the Bishops included CNU and Peace at home in which they gelled as a team with great shooting and overall play, as well a gutsy win on the road against rival Methodist College.

To Nikki:

There is a saying that the "journey of a thousand miles" begins with one step." Your first step began on January 30, 1982, 6 am. I remember the first time I saw you-your eyes were open, and you seemed to be looking around to see which way your journey was going to begin. Your second step was when you started school, 1st grade. I remember you standing there that day, dressed in a blue dress with a white sweater, all excited to get on that "big yellow bus", and continue on your journey. I guess the next step was when you finished elementary school, and then middle school, and finally high school. Now you're taking another step, graduating from NCWC with honors. Your journey up to this point has not been an easy one, but you've stuck to your dream, and now you are taking one more step on your journey. We're all proud of you, Nikki, and wishing you nothing but the best in the future. Proverbs 3:5-6 says "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths." (If you let God lead and direct your path (journey) you will never go wrong, and you will have a successful journey.)

We are all proud of you Nikki: Mommy, Nicholas. Michelle, Carletta, Derek, Grandma, Aunt Loretta, Uncle Leonard, Uncle Larry, all your nieces and nephews, your Mom's three best friends, Atlas, Jackie, and Nita. All your friends at St. Mark's Baptist Church, Washington, D.C., and most of all, Me. I Love You, Nikki - all I've ever wanted was for you to be happy and have the best that I could do for you. I'm proud of all that you have accomplished in twenty-three years. If you keep God in your life as you have been taught, the best part of your journey is yet to come. Don't give up on your dreams. The world is your oyster. Go get it, one step at a time.

Love always,

Daddy

Nicolle, I never had a woman in my life that worked so hard to accomplish her goals. All I can say is I love you and I'm so very proud of you. Eddie.

Tammy Bambi

Congratulations on your graduation! Wow, we are so proud of you! The Lord has truly blessed us with a wonderful loving daughter. Our prayer is that our Lord will guide you, protect you and provide His perfect wisdom as you embark on life's journey and fulfill God's purpose for your life. We love you very much.

Mom and Dad

We can make our plans, but the LORD determines our steps. Proverbs 16:9

"For I know the plans I have for you," says the Lord. "They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope." Jeremiah 29:11

Joshua,

It has been rewarding and fun over the years watching you play as a little boy and now growing into a young man. Follow your dreams. We are very proud of you.

> Love, Mama and Daddy

Josh Lipford

Kimberly,

We are so proud of you and your accomplishments. You are so committed to your education. From the very moment you decided to be an Elementary Education Major, you worked extremely hard and you dedicated your time to provide a better education for every child that will ever enter your classroom. You achieved and believed in yourself. Now it's time to go forward and make a difference in the lives of others. May God richly bless you for your faithfulness to Him and in your future as a teacher!

Teranda,

My youngest daughter with love from Mom and Dad; you have succeeded in the struggle of life. Good Luck!

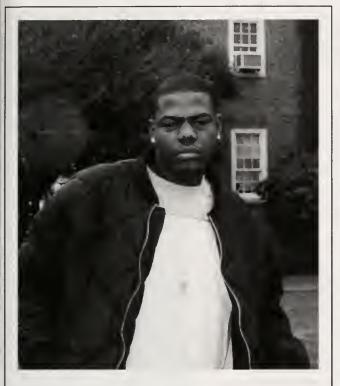

> Love you, Mr. and Mrs. Otis & Magdalene Whitaker

Patrice K. Hines

Who knew 21 years ago when Mom and Dad brought you home that you'd one day be my best friend, my confidant, and often my inspiration. Even though I'm the oldest, I'm thankful for the numerous things you've taught me. Continue to walk with that God-given confidence, live each day to the fullest, and trust God to order your steps! I love you, sis - if the world only knew what it's in store for! Love, LaTrease Hines-Rich P.S. Can I be the flowergirl in your wedding?

Jahmel Dimson

Congratulations on completing your education - I am so proud of you. It was a struggle, but you did it! Your father, your baby sister, and the rest of the family all say congratulations and may God bless and take care of you.

Love, Mom

Kristen Nicole Sherrod Class of 2004

Our little Angel, the years have gone by too fast. We will always cherish the fond memories and look forward to the new memories to come. God made you extra special with your sweet smile and caring ways. You always know how to brighten everyone's day.

You can never understand just how very proud we are of you. No matter what you do, you will always shine and everyone will be a better person knowing you!

Love Always, Mama and Daddy

Michael Stevens

Congratulations to our 2005 Graduate! We are so proud of your accomplishments. May you always follow the path God leads, even though it may be the one less traveled, and you will reap success beyond measure.

We love you!

Mom and Dad Kevin, Jennifer and Benjamin

Patrice K. Hines

Patrice, no words can express how proud we are of you. In the hard times you encouraged yourself, and in the difficult times you knew how to depend and lean on God. "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths." Proverbs 3:5-6 We are anxiously awaiting your future accomplishments as your "paths" have been directed by God. We love you, Baby Girl! Love,

> Mom, Dad, Tina, Tyrone, Tykeira and TJ, too!
